Welcome:

- Jessica Sankey, Director in Teaching and Learning – Wellness, welcomed committee members and had members introduce themselves.
- Patrick Durgan, Executive Chef and Director of Food Services, was invited to be on the Board for the Institute of Child Nutrition funded by the USDA. They are starting a culinary program for school food to help schools transition to scratch cooking.

Activity: Feedback on new menu items:

- Committee members participated in activity looking over the draft of new menu items sharing whether these would be items adults and/or students would eat, and brainstorming names for menu items to encourage younger students to take an adventure bite.

Update:

- Jessica shared with committee members the process and progress of the DECA students requesting coffee service at the high school level.

Review Guidance for Fundraisers & Celebrations:

- Jessica shared updated form and members looked over the form and provided feedback on any further revisions.

Announcements – Closing Comments:

- Members discussed and shared recent action or changes regarding good in schools they appreciate or support.
