

Highly Capable Parent Advisory Meeting

Nov. 26, 2019
9:45 – 11:00 a.m.

Meeting Facilitators:

Directors of Teaching and Learning, Trina Hall, Jessica Sankey & Keith Schacht,
Teacher on Special Assignment, Jenny Lawrence

Agenda:

Welcome, Introductions, & Purpose of Parent Advisory

Updates on Highly Capable in Bellingham Public Schools –
Current Happenings

Review from Spring Data Feedback Results – families, staff, students
Key Themes that Emerged

Presentation by Dr. Sara White

Introduction to Anxiety – What it is & how it may present

Gathering Input to Set Goals for 2019-20 school year

World Café-style conversation on key questions related to the social emotional aspects of support for our highly capable learners at home & at school

Meeting Prep for January

Copies available of article from Seattle Times on history of gifted education programming in Seattle Public Schools – we will discuss this, and other current topics in the media on the same topic (Seattle, New York, etc.) at the January meeting.

Good of the Order – Announcements

Thank you for coming!

Notes will be posted following the meeting on the district website at <https://bellingshamschools.org/program/family-events-hcl-resources/>

Next Parent Advisory Meeting: Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2019
9:45 – 11:00 a.m. District Office Board Room
1306 Dupont Street, Bellingham, WA